STATE CONVENTION POSTPONED. In compliance with what appears to be the unanimous wish of the Democratic party of the State, the State Central Committee recommend that the State Convention be postponed until the 15th day of April next, and meet on that day.

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM NICARAGUA. It will be seen from our telegraphic despatches that Gen. WALKER has been completely and brilliantly successful in a series of battles in Nicara

THE STATE APPORTIONMENT. Our readers are perfectly tamiliar with the luiquity practised by the Lagislature of 1851-2 in districting the State for Representatives in Congress and Members of the State Legislature. We have heretofore presented tables showing that that Legislature, by disregarding in the most outrageous manner, both geographical symmetry and equality of population, managed to so pack the districts as, on a basis of less than two thousand anti-democratic majority in the State, in 1851, to give the democrats but two Congressional districts and to place that party in a minority of sixteen in the Legislature. The process by which this was done, was one of the most scandalous abuses of legislative power on record in any State. Less than 70,000 of population in one district was given a Representative in Congress, while near 100,000 in an adjoining district was only equal to the 70,000 in the former district. No single consideration was regarded but how to keep democrats out of Congress. This we have often shown, and no one has dared controvert a fact which the map of the State and the figures of elections and of population demonstrate with all the exactness of arithmetic and geography.

But outrageous as was this Congressional apportionment, its infamy has been partially hid by the overshadowing outrage on popular rights perpetrated by the Legislative apportionment. It happens that the anti-democratic strength, in a much greater degree than the demodratic strength, lies in certain localities; and hence, an apportionment which only looked to the constitutional requirements in such cases, would at any time within the last ten years have given the democrats a majority in the Legislature. And yet, by carving and cutting-by disregarding, in short, every thing but partisan considerations-what was believed to be an impregnable majority against the democrats was secured. Fifty-five thousand whigh -as they were then called-were given sixteen Senators, and fifty-three thousand democrats were given nine Senators. In the House, it was impossible to place the democrats in so large a minority, without dividing counties. But by a skillful arrangement of fractions, and floating districts, it was managed to give seven majority against the

These general remarks are called out by an article in the Patriot of yesterday, replying to a preceding article on the same subject in this paper. The Patriot properly construes our previous remarks as favorable to a redistricting of the State, and professes to hold us to the issue. Very good. But the whole issue, in this event, we notify the Patriot, involves first the fairness or unfairness of the apportionment of 1851-2. We undertake to show, first, that that apportionment was unequal, fraudulent, and unconstitutional-so far as an evasion of constitutional requirements is a violation of the constitution. We undertake to establish this, If we succeed, the next question will be, whether an unjust and arbitrary enactment ought to be so modified as to render equal and exact justice to apportionment of 1851-2 was unequal, unjust, and oppressive that it ought to be amended.

We repeat, that we shall not shirk the issue as we have made it and as we restate it above. We of aggression upon our northern brethren, either intend to press it with whatever vigor we possess: and, in our hands, it will resolve itself into the proposition that it is the duty of legislators to remedy legislative wrongs and modify dishonest and oppressive enactments. The Patriot may very safely set it down that in discussing this issue with us it will find no opportunity for dodgings and

So much for the subject at large. We must now correct the Patriot on one point. It says we "desire so to re-arrange the districts as to give our party control of the State for all future time." This is the issue which it accepts. But we have made no such issue! What we want is, an honest apportionment, which, as near as possible, shall put every voter of the State-every county of the State-every district of the State-on an equality as respects representative power. We know that such honest apportionment would give a large democratic majority in the Legislature; but we would as strenuously advocate it were its results to be different. We believe in the strength of our principles with the honest PEOPLE of the State; and, by all our hopes! we would never consent to accept power for our party, obtained by the disfranchisement of our fellow-citizens of any party, or by a dishonest exercise of legislative authority. Let the Patriot, then, be careful, in accepting an issue, to state it correctly.

We notice but one other sentence of the Patriof's article. It says: "The present apportionment laws were enacted by a Whig Legislature, at a time when the politics of the State were Whig, and the districts were arranged with a view to give expression to that

Wing sentiment." This admission covers pretty much the whole ground. The Patriot admits that the present apportionment laws "were enacted, at a time when the politics of the State were subig, with a view to give and furthermore, that not one word or line had expression to that whig sentiment." This is true, No other "view" was taken. There was no attempt to equalize representation among the population. And now, although we would not follow election. As it is well known that there are state, there such an example—although we would take no advantage which did not follow fairly and naconrily from our model. I have been an influence to inKentucky Republicans, used their influence to inKentucky Republicans, used their influence to inity at all-yet, we feel a little curious to see how | duce their followers to vote for Fillmore, acting the Patriot will defend its own party for district- upon the shallow policy that it would be a good ing the State "with a view to give expression to the sentiment" of its friends, and, at the same time, be elected by the people. Having thus robbed when the sentiment of the State has changed, at- themselves of moral power, they threw their vote tack the majority for proposing a change in the utterly away, and made no sign. - Cin. ANOTHER TERRITORIAL QUESTION. The territory of Utah, of which BRIGHAM Young is Governor, has a delegate in Congress with instructions from his constituents to ask-and if needs be to demand-its admission into the Confederacy of States. The only grounds of opposition to her admission, will be, we suppose, the institution of polygamy which exists there by legal authority. However shocking to the morals of a more enlightened civilization, Corgress certainly has no power over the matter. Like the institution of elavery, it is one of the domestic relations that can only be regulated by the people themselves. There is nothing in the Federal Constitution on the subject, and if Congress undertakes to say how many wives a man shall have, there is serious danger of their establishing bigamy in the District of Columbia, where they are personally interested, and over which, it has been said, they have absolute jurisdiction. If Congress could determine that a man should have but one wife. the same power could impose upon him a dozen. As there is a superabundance of old maids in the North and as Free Love is getting to be one of their popular heresies, with their present heavy majority in Congress, who can say that they would

OFFICIAL INSOLENCE. The Know Nothing Secretary of State, at Frankfort. Kentucky, baving, with his colleagues, rejected and not counted the votes of six counties, in the Presidential election, on account of a technical informality, refused to allow a committee of the electors the privilege of seeing and reading the returns by which they were elected, in order that a full and true statement of the vote might be given to the public in a semi official form.

Happily, however, the real Kentucky vote is known accurately, but unofficially, and it is one which promises, by its Democratic majority, to consign to retirement, at the earliest moment, the whole gang of Know Nothing officials at Frankfort, embracing the churlish and uncivil Secretary

PRESIDENT PIERCE. The Savannah R epublican, a Fillmore paper in the recent canvass, in its notice of the President's

"Upon the great question that has so long divided the country-the constitutional rights of the slaveholding States-the message of the President is all that any honest man of the South can de mand or desire. It sustains every position for which the South has been contending in her struggles with a demented anti-slavery fanaticism both parties. If we fail in the first point, we will at the North, and by an argument thoroughly nacheerfully abandon the other. For it is because the | tional, and based upon the principles of the Constitution. As a southern man, we desire to offer our sincere thanks to the President for his able and manly vindication of the equality of the States, and of our own section against the charge as regards their rights or their feelings. Coming, as this message does, from a northern man who has risen, under the impulse of a noble patriotism, above the prejudices of education and the public sentiment of his people, it is earnestly to be hoped that his voice may be heard above the tumultuous elements, and that reason and justice, so long dethroned, may be restored once more to their legitimate position and power.

" We are no particular admirer of the President. but we are ready, as we have ever been, to accord him honesty of intention; while we are free to concede, at the close of his administration, that our foreign relations have been conducted by his first executive officer with great ability and statesmanship, and that to him the country is greatly indebted for our present harmonious and pnorable relations with the nations of the earth.

POOR SUMBER. - The Montgomery Advertiser says despatch from Boston, under date of the 2d inst., says that this worthy has been forbidden by his physicians to visit Washington yet. He is quite feeble. Poor fellow. Would'nt a little of Radway's Ready Relief or Perry Davis' Pain Killer rubbed on his craneum, and a little tansey bitters taken inwardly, with an occasional draught of hourhound tea as he is going to bed, have a tendency to strengthen him? Greeley, of the Tribune, thus wails over the afflictions of the mar-

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

GRUNDY COUNTY,-The democrats of Grundy met on the 1st instant,—Unian Yonk, cheirman, and William Wonthingron, secretary. The following delegates were appointed to attend the

State Convention, on the 15th April: A J McElroy, Esq. Col Peter Carter, G W Sparkman, Esq. Dan'l Dodson, F E Plumlee, Col. Jo Cummings, J M Billingsly, Esq. Carter Drake, Squire Johnson, L Smith, W J Hill, Esq. William Worthington, Esq. U York, Esq. W R Nesl, John Flemming, James Clehdenon, John B Hill and J

The following are among the resolutions adopt-

Resolved, That we at present are at a loss to know the where bouts of our enemy; but we feel conscious of our strength: not having the least apprehension of being taken by surprise, as we have become pretty well drilled in the different modes of warfare, whether attacked by day or in the sleepy hours of night.

Resolved, That we unqualifiedly approbate the official conduct of Gov. Johnson. We also consider him as one of the ablest defenders of democratic principles. His political services in the canvass of 1855-his masterly expose of knownothingism throughout the State-have bound him to the hearts of the democrats of Tennessee with a cord that will not soon be broken.

Resolved. That we recommend the name of the Hon. Isham G. Harris as our candidate to fill the Gubernstorial chair in August next, and we instruct our delegates to use their endeavors to secure his nomination.

Resolved, That we highly appreciate the services of the editors of the Union and American in the able manner in which they conducted their paper in defending the principles of democracy.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS-PACIFIC BAILROAD. The special Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian, under date of Dec. 4. вауе:

"It is supposed that the Republican majority in the House, led as it is by notorious speculators in the public lands, will attempt to force a bill through to construct the Pacific Railroad, during the present short session; but as it is evident that no measure can be agreed upon by them that will be supported by the Democrats and receive the signa-ture of the President, it is fair to presume that it will go over and constitute one of the great measures of the new administration. Much speculation is being indulged in this subject, and ideas have been thrown out by the epposition press, that because Mr. Buchanan, has repeated the declara-tion which he made in 1853, that he was in favor of building a railroad through our territories to the Pacific Ocean, in his late letter to the California Democracy, therefore he will be in favor of a great plunder scheme upon which this project is to rest. Now, the very reverse is the fact. I regard the declaration of Mr. Buchanan in favor of the Pacific Railroad, as auspicious of its economical and speedy construction. It is in vain to evade the i-sue, it must come upon us.

"It is not my purpose to enter into a discussion of the Constitutional power of Congress; the National Democratic Convention, and other eminent authorities, and the policy of the Democratic party in reference to grants of alternate sections of lands for railroads, have measurably disposed of that question. But, standing as it does upon the ground of high necessity, it constitutes a case en-titled to the greatest consideration.

"Had there been any doubt as to Mr. BUCHAMAN'S position upon this question the present Congress would be the field of enormous operations, and a corrupt bill might have been hurried th ough, based upon the idea that unless the Pacific railroad was carried through now, it would fail when Mr. Buchanan's administration took possession."

The Natchez (Miss.) Free Trader, acco the publication of Mr. Buchanan's Pacific Railroad letter with the following paragraph:

"We publish the above letter because it bear the marks of authenticity. At the same time we can not forbear expressing our hope that it is a forgery. If it should however prove to be genuine, it will then be time, as it will be the duty of the Democratic press, to put on record their stern protest against the doctrine put forward in the letter. The Democratic party has always been opposed to this species of Federal legislation, and we can find no where in the Cincinnati Platform any declaration that Congress possesses the Constitutional power to build a Pacific Railroad.

CONGRESSIONAL. WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. Horse-The House resumed the consideration of the motion to refer the President's message to a committee of the whole. Kr. Smith, of Tennessae, replied to the arguments of Messrs. Campbell and Sherman, saying that he saw in the remarks of the latter gentle men, an effort to unite all the elements of opposition to democracy in the next Presidential election; but he believed the scheme would fail. He proceeded to argue that the repeal of the Missouri restriction was not condemned in the recent canvass, as had been so freely asserted by gentlemen on the other side. House-Mr. Smith of Tennessee, replying to the remark of Mr. Campbell of thio, and Mr. Sherman said if they had confined themselves to making excuses for their defeat he would not have thought it proper to respond. They had charged on the democratic party the entertaining of differ ent sentiments in different sections of the Union, but this was silly—it amounted to nothing on the public mind. He saw in Mr. Sherman's speech an effort to anite all the opposing elements North and South against the democracy in the next Presidential election. He saw a back down from all the positions peretofore taken by the Republican party in this House relative to the question of slavery, but this scheme will not succeed, the other gentleman (Mr. Campbell), had stated that the great principle of Nebraska bill, and the repeal of the Missouri Comomise, and the policy of the present administraion had been condemned by three hundred thousand votes. So far from this, as he proceeded to show, they have been overwhelmingly approved by the people of the country. He maintained that they are opposed to sectionalism as was shown in the result of the Presidential election. As to Mr. Buchanan's principles they are embodied in the resolutions of the National Demogratic Convention.

STOP THE FALSEHOOD. A young man by the name of Fairs, (Thomas Felts, we believe,) living in Logan county, Ky., near the neighborhood of Dr. Conn, came to Springfield, Tenn., on the 6th inst., and told us that the night previous, about midnight, himself and five other patrols unexpectedly came upon a collection of negroes-about one hundred in number-who were barbecuing about fifty carcasses, and that Col. Thomas H. Drane was making them an abolition speech. That some of the negroes fired upon the patrol who fled a short distance, and turned and fired on about a dezen negroes, the remainder having dispersed. The patrol shot one negro in the arm, and captured ten. Drane made his escape. On the 6th inst, those captured negroes were sent to Russelville, Ky., to jail. This about the substance of the story. We and others have publicly and privately spoken of it freely on the authority of Rolls. We have recently learned, hencever, from various reliable sources in the neighborhood of Dr. Conn, that this whole story is a fabrication. We, therefore, at once publish this statement in justice to all parties con cerned, and in order to disabuse the public mind

And we bury our treasures there;
There are brown of beauty and bosoms of snow;
There are heaps of dust, but we love them so,
There are trinkets and treases of hair.

There are fragments of song that nobody sings,
And a part of an infant's prayer;
There's a lute unswept, and a harp without sirings;
There are broken yows, and pieces of rings,
And the garment she used to wear.

There are hands that are waved when the fairy shore. By the mirage is lifted in air;
And we sometimes hear, through the turbulent roar,
Sweet voices we heard in the day a gons before.
When the wind down the river is fair. Oh! rémembered for aye be the blessed isle,

ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE. Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand;

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhæ of Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debilty, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally.

BY B. DE LANEY, M. D. BY B. DR LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in this imprudence and solfude of youth, may be easily removed without Manaciase, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated: and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure massir perfectly and at the lenst possible cost, thereby avoiding all the alvertised nostrums of the day.

ARE YOU SICK?

THEN you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by AYEE'S CATHARTIC PHISS, if taken in season. Don't go dragging through the Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, because your blood is leaded with bile. Don't wear the head-ache, heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because your stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with Plimples, Blotches, Clicers, Sorce and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleaning. Don't show yourself about, lean, haggard, all caved in, because your Stomach and Bowels need atrengthening into healthy action. Ayer's Pills set these things right as surely as water quenches fro. They purify the hody and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quick as they are takes. They are the one great medical wonder of this age, recognized by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cheery Peetoral for a Cough, and the Pills for all decangements requiring a purgative medicine.
